HISTORY OF HOTEL SEPETNÁ

The beginnings of accommodation facilities in the Sepetná Valley date back to 1910, when on February 2, the Association of Convalescent Homes in Moravian Ostrava (Vereine Ferienheim in Mähr. Ostrau) bought property No.20 together with the adjacent land from the then owners. Apparently, a mountain hut was built on the site of the former homestead; the hut was used for stay recreation for children and youth. The hut had various house numbers, from 625 to 251, to the current 0956. After WW2, on September 6, 1950, the Revolutionary Trade Union Movement in Prague became the owner.

In the 1960s, Hutní Montáže National Company became the new owner. At the same time, the name was changed to Horský hotel Montér/ Montér/Fitter Mountain Hotel, which was probably more in line with the building spirit of those years.

After 1989, several lessors took turns in the building, until it was finally bought on October 2, 2000 by the company Sepetná, v.o.s. At this time, the hotel returned to its original name SEPETNÁ, as it used to be called in the old days. Since 2022, Sepetná has been run by company JAKA21 s.r.o.
